Terms and Conditions

Pricing

While we don't anticipate price changes, our ("Qlicket's") prices are subject to change. In such circumstances, Qlicket will provide advance written notice of any price changes before continuing services.

Payment

Monthly invoices generated by Qlicket shall be paid within thirty (30) days by you ("Client") via automatic recurring credit/debit card, ACH, NEFT or the like to "Qlicket Inc." and will be inclusive of all applicable sales, service or other taxes or duties, tariffs or the like applicable to provision of the Services.

Free Trial

Qlicket believes it is important that customers have the opportunity to try its offering firsthand. As part of the thirty (30) day free trial, Client agrees to provide Qlicket with a valid credit card and photo ID that will be held on file as collateral for Qlicket providing its equipment at Client site (unless an advance payment is made by the Client). If Client returns at Client's expense all of Qlicket's equipment in like new condition within 30 days of going live, Client will not incur any charges; otherwise, Qlicket is authorized to charge the card on file as per the invoice, for Installation, Equipment, and Software and Support, unless Client provides an alternative payment method as listed under 'Payment' section.

Cancellation

Either Client or Qlicket can terminate Services by providing thirty (30) days advance notice in writing to the other party. Services by Qlicket and payment by Client will be in effect during the notice period, other than in the event of a material breach by the other party.

Internet Usage

Qlicket is not responsible for Client's users' offline or online behaviors, postings, or the like over any of Client's WiFi hotspots. Qlicket is committed to ensuring Client is compliant with any regulations and that Client's users' browsing activity and personal information are protected. Qlicket will maintain logs for every user accessing WiFi through its system. In the event that Client or a government entity requests information of a particular user, Qlicket will evaluate these cases on a case-by-case basis, ensuring that the request complies with both the spirit and letter of the law, before providing user data.

Proprietary Rights

Qlicket shall retain ownership over all its hardware, including the Qlicket Gateway Controller (unless purchased by Client), and software, including intellectual property, source code, algorithms, modifications, user and analytics data, suggestions and modifications, and any updates and enhancements thereof to any aspect of its services. Client agrees not to reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile or allow any other third-party to otherwise apply any procedure or process to ascertain or derive additional knowledge into Qlicket's patented hardware and software.

Indemnification

This arrangement is between Client and Qlicket and both parties agree to indemnify and hold harmless the other party, its affiliates, and its employees from and against any demand, claim or action proceeding asserted against an entity or person brought by a third-party, regardless of the merit of such claim.

Representations and Warranty

Qlicket's services are provided "as is" and while we do our best to maintain the best experience possible for our clients and users, Qlicket does not warrant that its services will operate uninterrupted or error-free. Client is responsible for maintaining its own working Internet connection at the controller and each access point ("AP").

Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, excluding its conflict of laws principles. The parties will try in good faith to settle within thirty days any dispute relating to this Agreement ("Dispute"). If the Dispute is not resolved within thirty days after such Dispute arises, the Dispute must be resolved in small claims court or by arbitration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client agrees to pay to Qlicket, on demand, all reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and all expenses) incurred by Qlicket in the enforcement of Client's obligations under this Agreement.

Limitation of Liability

In no case shall Qlicket's maximum liability arising out of this Agreement exceed the amount paid in a single month to Qlicket by Client.

Publicity

Client and Qlicket may use one another's name in connection with the services being rendered.

Consent

By providing photo identification and credit card details to Qlicket, you agree to these Terms of Service and this Agreement.
