- People on first shift have been really helpful teaching afternoon shift. THANK YOU.
- We need more hand sanitizer in the BREAK ROOM please
- I think we're going to be UNDERSTAFFED soon on the weekend shift

The New Normal- Four steps to using technology to improve communications

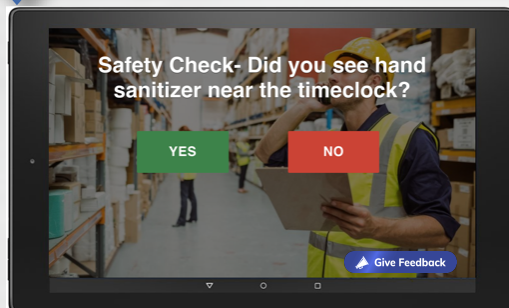

#1: Provide points of reference for important information

#2: Remind your team early and often of the policies in place to keep them safe

#3: Identify gaps in knowledge and use questions to focus employees on policies

#4: High-level recognition for hard work
